

Controlling the Entrance IP Communicators

1. Features

- Communication and control of Entrance IP Communicators
- Communication over a local computer network and public Internet access
- Supports SIP server and Peer-To-Peer communication mode
- Control up to 100 entrance communicators
- Door unlock control using DTMF code
- Control up to 4 lock to each entrance
- Display video from the entrance communicator permanently without a call
- Up to 4 Auxiliary IP Cameras to each entrance
- Multilingual environment
- Pop-up function on incoming call
- Clear feature diagnostics
- Technical support
- Simple and fast installation
- Support many IP PBX (Asterisk, 3CX, FritzBOX)
- Operating system Windows 10, Windows 8.1, Windows 7, Windows XP

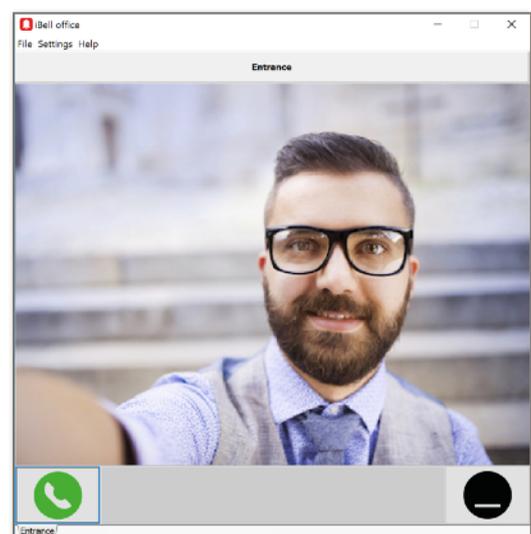

2. Applications

- Office entrances
- Entrances to production halls
- Entrances to protected areas
- Parking entrances
- Remote assistance

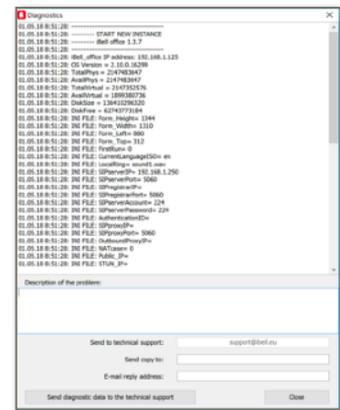

3. Description

The program iBell office is designed to control the access of people to protected areas such as entrance to office spaces, production halls, warehouses, car park entries, etc. The program requires a computer running on system Windows. The program allows voice and video communication with the incoming person and remote opening of the entrance door.

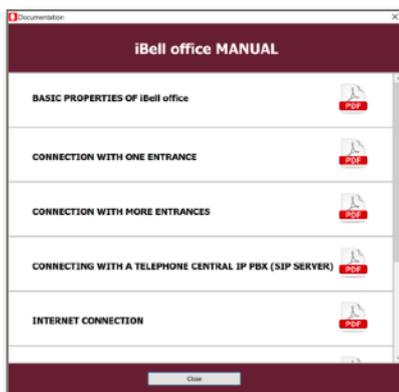

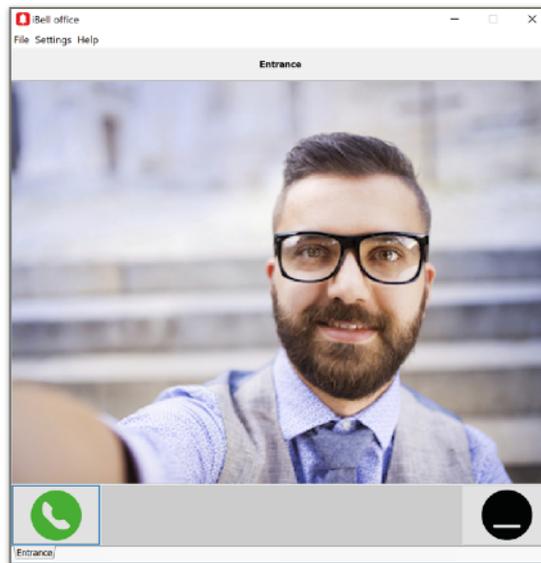

Complete settings in one easy-to-view window

Clear diagnostics and connect to technical support

Documentation as a part of the program

Application sheets for all common configurations